

KENNEBUNKPORT PUBLIC HEALTH

Celebrating 75 Years of Service

Power in Aging: Self-Empowerment, and Reframing Aging in the World!

Presented by: Marilyn R. Gugliucci, MA,
Ph.D., AGHEF, GSAF, AGSF, NAOMEF;
Professor & Director Geriatric Education and Research at the University of New England, College of Osteopathic Medicine.

Join us, Thursday April 21, 2022; at 9 AM at the Louis T. Graves Public Memorial Library.

- Older age is often associated with disease and decline and there is good reason for that—our society socially constructed it that way!
- To age optimally it is important to understand why our society views aging the way it does AND what we can do about it.
- Participate in the discussion on how we age and how we can exercise our own empowerment in the world to address ageism.

RESERVE YOUR SEAT TODAY! Space is limited!

Please call Graves Library at: 207-
967-2778

Please use the large side door off the parking lot to enter the building for the event.

LOUIS T. GRAVES MEMORIAL PUBLIC LIBRARY